MEMBERSHIP MEETING

DECEMBER 3, 2009

Meeting was called to order

Secretary's Report: November's membership meeting minutes were approved as published in the newsletter. November's board minutes were read.

Treasurers Report: November's financial report was given

Membership: Prospective new members were introduced and welcomed. Paul also reminded everyone about the 50/50 raffle to be held.

Parades: Paul thanked everyone that came and walked in the Christmas parade this year. Everything went well and the turn out for this parade was great!!!!

Nursing Homes: Pam Siebert said the dates and times are listed in the newsletter and also on the website. You must be an approved member to participate and she must approve your dog before you attend any of the nursing home visits. She will be happy to answer any questions you may have after the meeting.

Obedience: Bruce said that the obedience committee is considering cutting back our obedience sessions to five instead of six. The May-June session has been running very small for attendance.

Deb Zierler asked if anyone would be interested in earning some "hours" by vacuuming at the club after our obedience classes. Talk with her after the meeting if interested.

Winter Show: Nancy Zolkowski on behalf of Adam Zschaechner asked for help in the kitchen at the winter show. The food booth will be for three days this year and Adam would like to see more people volunteer so they can schedule for shorter work shifts. Conformation Stewards: Ruth Taggart said that conformation stewards are needed for the show. You may talk with her or Mike Reinke after the meeting or give them a call. Anne Schmidt said that she would be willing to have a class on stewarding if anyone is interested in learning how to do it. It would be offered with her conformation classes which are on Wednesday evenings.

Gail read a note from Mary Parszewski on the winter show coming up. Mary mentioned in it that it will be a three day weekend this year with our show being on Saturday January 23 and Packerland being on Friday, January 22 and Oshkosh being on Sunday, January 24th. Adam Zschaechner is doing the food booth this year so contact him if you can help. Mike Reinke is my chief ring steward-contact him or Ruth Taggart if you would be able to help with stewarding. For helping at the gate contact Mary and also if interested in helping in the judges' or workers' hospitality room or the trophy and catalog sales table.

Conformation Classes: Anne Schmidt said that classes will be starting on Wednesday, January 13th at 7 PM. If interested in learning how to steward for our winter show contact her and she will offer a training session at this time.

Website: It was mentioned that some thought that our site was hard to navigate and find what you wanted as far as our classes were concerned The board said that it would be looked into and see what could be done.

Wall Plaques: It was also brought up about our agility plaque and how do we get our titles listed on there. Barb Skaer said that the information has to be sent to her and she will see that it is entered on the plaques. It was suggested that information regarding these plaques should be mentioned in our newsletter more often to remind people that these plaques are available for club members to have their dogs titles listed on. Barb said she would talk with Paula about putting something in the newsletter.

Spring Show: Gail said that this year she will need a new trophy chairperson. Mary Frisch said she would be willing to work with anyone that is willing to do this job. Kathy Landro said she would give some thought on doing this job. Also feeding our judges and the workers every year is a big job and Gail said she would like to see the two workers that have done it every year get some help in planning and doing the work necessary to put on the spread that our club does every year. If you like working with food please contact Gail and she will pass your name on.
